Fifth Year. Vol. 5. No. 31

GNEVA REBEKA NO. 35.

Instituted Here Last Saturday Night.

A lodge of the Daughters of Rebekah, a branch of Odd Fellowship, was instituted at the Masonic Hall last Saturday night by J. W. McNamara, assisted by Frankie Alloway Lodge, No. 63, of Wilton, Ky.

There were seventeen charter members enrolled upon the roster of the new lodge and the following were elected as officers for the ensuing term:

Mrs. Ellen McDonald, N. G.
Mrs. Mollie Dixon, V. G.
Mrs. Geneva Cole, Sec't.
Mrs. Rhul Mitchell, Treas.
J. M. Dixon, I. G.
F. C. Moore, O. G.
Wm. Mitchell, R. S. to N. G.
Mrs. Maggie Hughes, L. S. to N. G.

Roxie Hutton, Cond.
Andrew A. Tichell, Ward.

There were about thirty members, twenty of whom were ladies, came up from Wilton, Grays and Bertha, to participate in the institution of this new lodge.

Mr. McNamara has been very successful in organizing new lodges and this is the last one he has to his credit.

Those present were: John Miller and wife, Alex Frost and wife, A. Moore and wife, F. Gooden and wife, G. D. Berge and wife, Mrs. George Childers, Mrs. Myrtle McBreyer, Miss Oro Troutman, Mrs. Fannie Gilbert, S. J. Gilliam and wife, Walter Henry and wife, H. C. Jump, Andrew Pally, L. Tuggle and wife, Mrs. Minnie Alloway, Mrs. Belle Gray, Miss Bertha Fore, Mrs. Eliza McVay, Mrs. Sarah Hughes, Dora Morris, Miss Susie Manning and Chas. Frost.

Franklin McVeagh, millionaire grocer and philanthropist, of Chicago, well-known and highly esteemed as the scholar merchant and leader in civic reforms and who left the Republican paragon party to support Grover Cleveland, and has since been identified with the Democratic party, has returned to the Republican fold for good and sufficient reasons, which he summarizes as follows:

"I am a Republican because my interest is in progressive politics and in a party backing which makes them practice.

"The Republican party, thro Roosevelt and the Western people, has become a sure backer of progress, including even tariff progress.

"The reactionary Republicans are certain to become a smaller and smaller minority.

"I am for Taft in particular because he will carry forward what Roosevelt has begun and because I believe he will be another epoch-making President.

"Bryan, though able and honest, lacks political judgement and common sense, and would be extremely uncertain and unsafe.

"The Democratic party, though now superficially unified, can not possibly be really so, and will for years to come be unable to consistently and usefully back any policies.

"Therefore, the only party to belong to is the Republican. If what you really care for is political, social and economic progress."

Men of great affairs, whose time is most completely taken up, are usually on time. It is they who know best the value of time and the importance of saving it by being prompt.

BANQUET

Will be Spread for Ministers Here During Conference

Nothing Will be Left Undone to Make Them Feel Welcome.

When the annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church meets here on Thursday, September 10, to spend a week in our growing little city where they will be given a hearty welcome.

The business men of our city are making extensive preparations for a banquet to be spread in the dining hall of Union College at eight o'clock on the evening of Thursday, September 21. Every citizen of our town will be welcome and is entitled to attend.

It will be required of every gentleman of our city who attends to either donate to the committee having the matter in charge in advance or pay at the door that evening one dollar which will entitle himself and lady to the banquet.

There will be at least one hundred and twenty-five ministers who will be the guests of our city in whose honor the banquet will be given and a little help from each of our citizens will make the burden light on all.

Those who desire to help meet this expense can see Judge F. D. Sampson at any time and leave their donations with him as he is the Chairman of the Committee having the matter in hand.

Let everybody join in making this one of the nicest occasions that our town has ever witnessed.

JANUARY 5, 1909,

Date Fixed For County Republican Primary.

The County Committee met at the courthouse last Saturday afternoon and fixed the date of the Republican primary for Tuesday, January 5, 1909.

Almost all of the candidate announced for the various offices were present and were given a chance to be heard and without a single exception each one expressed a desire to have the primary as early as possible, which under the party law cannot be held until January 1. The committee joined in the concurrence of the candidates and fixed the date for the first Tuesday in January.

The fight will now be waged bitterly until the close of the polls when quite a number will go down in defeat while a few will be the victors.

And there is many a bad scar on our fortunes which he had to prod us up to the mark.

The Mountain Advocate, with promptness goes to its legion of readers fifty-two weeks in the year.

Great business men have this bit. Napoleon would not have been Napoleon but for his unflinching promptness.

Time is cheap, and we are apt to think we can flinch it as we will. But it is always ourselves we rob, not Time.

There are few, if any rules of conduct more important and yet more lightly neglected than that of promptness in keeping appointments.

SCHOOLS OPEN

And Work for the Year in Both Schools

Institute Opened Monday and Union College Tuesday.

Vacation is over and school have begun and all the young folks are now busily engaged with their studies.

The public High School began its work for the present year on September 1, and now has an enrollment of almost 230.

The Baptist Institute opened last Monday with a fair attendance and will increase as days go by.

Union College opened last Tuesday with a splendid attendance and it is the expectation of the management that this school will enjoy the largest attendance this year of any in its history.

Pupils are coming in from all parts of the country and the accommodations now are such that the boarding students can be properly cared for.

Truly Barbourville is a first-class school town.

Woman's Home Companion for September.

"The most beautiful queen on any throne," this what Kellogg Durland calls the Empress of Russia, in great series of articles, entitled "The Romance of an Empress," which begins in the Woman's Home Companion for September. Mr. Durland, who is the author of "Red Reign," spent a year in Russia, getting together all the facts of the romantic and sad life of the most powerful queen in the world.

In this issue Irving Bacheller begins a new series of Cricket Tales, which bids fair to be even more popular than his famous "Eben Holden."

Other stories are "The Golden Wedding," by Alice Brown; "The Derelict," by Juliet Wilson Tompkins; "The Girl in the Mirror," by Hubert Footner; "Dare You Love Me!" by Annie Hamilton Donnell, and the Minister's Barrell," by Hettie Bosley Goldrick.

Jack London on his trip around the world which he is making for the Woman's Home Companion in his boat, the Shark, has stopped long enough to send the magazine from far-off Tahiti a description of the "Nature Man" whom he ran across in that distant Pacific island.

Jean Webster, who wrote "When Patty Went to College," has been in Japan and tells in the September number how she, with three or four girl friends, set up housekeeping in "The House of Wistaria Water."

Paderewski has selected for Companion readers the best program of modern Polish music, which is accompanied by the full music of one of the most beautiful of the numbers in the great pianist's program: "Stojowski's Folk Dance."

The September number is the great Fall Fashion Number of Woman's Home Companion, and contains many things of interest for every woman.

A good deal is written about the June bride, but the young man who marries in September, if he is the right sort, will never have occasion to regret.

If a man wears his trousers out at the bottom he's generally a vagabond; if at the knees he's religious, or a good orchardist; but if in the seat he's either a good wagoner or a lazy printer.

GAS WELLS

Incexhaustible and Show High Pressure.

A few days ago we accepted an invitation to visit the gas well on the Mayhew farm and witness a test of its capacity.

The rumor being circulated among our citizens that the supply of gas was about exhausted, we thought we would go and see for ourselves.

Upon reaching the well the gas was turned open and made such a deafening, roaring noise that you could not hear one speak at your elbow. The test showed a pressure of 310 feet to the square inch, which shows that although the well has been in use for two years, it is now as strong as when first connected.

The Faulkner well has been supplying the entire town for some time past, and would furnish sufficient gas to run our entire town, while the Mayhew well, will furnish as much gas in three days as the entire town consumes in a whole month.

There is no foundation what ever for the rumor that has gained circulation to the effect that the supply of gas is failing.

Those who contemplate using gas need have no fear of the supply failing and can have their houses plumbed and prepared to use gas as it is here in unlimited quantities and makes the cleanest and cheapest fuel that can be had anywhere.

OUT OF THE GINGER JAR.

A thing of beauty is a joy forever; But a thing of duty is a job more clever.

Prepare for a rainy day before the clouds begin to gather.

Some men don't scrub out the bathtub after taking a bath, so his wife has to do it.

What kind of essence does a young man like when he pops the question? Acquiescence.

When a dozen things crowd at once, it takes a level headed man to hustle and not get rattled.

There are various and several kinds of undesirable trusts, but trusting to luck is the extreme limit.

How the women do hate to get their clothes all wet because hubby won't cut the weeds along the path.

A young society woman likes to get on to a new wrinkle, while the older ones endeavor to get of it.

We needn't go to dime novels for heroines. Look into the kitchen at that old lady who is secretly dying for a new magazine, a picnic, or a dollar of her very own, and often lies down to last rest without getting it.

That cheerless old fellow with the scythe always gets all that is coming to him.

If you want the light of day to shine in your home throughout the night, you must have an Electric Light installed, see M. P. MILLER, and have him make you a price on installing an electric light wire in your residence or business house.

Pleasant Evening Reveries.—A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.—Crude Thoughts from the Editorial Pen.

A model wife is the woman who looks after his household, and makes her hospitality a delight to him, and who is not a burden: who has learned that a soft answer will turn away wrath, who keeps her sweetest smiles and loving words for her husband; he is her confidante in sorrow or in joy, who does not feel the necessity of explaining her private affairs to the neighborhood; who respects the rights of husband and children, and in return has due regard paid to her; who knows that the strongest argument is her womanliness, and so she cultivates it: who is sympathetic in joy or grief, and who finds work for hands to do; who is not made bitter by trouble, but who strengthens and sweetens under it; who tries to cancel the faults of her husband, rather than blazon them forth to an uninterested public; the woman whose life-book has love written on every page; who makes a home for a man, a home in a house and in a heart, a home that he is sure of, a home that is full of love presided over by one whose price is above rubies. She is the model wife.

A successful man: "A man who has made a happy home for his wife and children. No matter what he has not done in the way of achieving wealth and honor; if he has done that he is a grand success. If he has not done that, and it is his own fault, though he be the highest in the land, he is a most pitiable failure. I wonder how many men in a mad pursuit of gold, which characterizes the age, realize that there is no fortune which can be left to their families as great as the memory of a happy home.

Wanted—a boy. A brave, courageous, manly, hopeful boy; one who is not afraid of the truth; one who hates deceit; one who scorns a lie; one who loves his mother, one who does not know more than his parents; one who has the courage to say "no," and stick to it; one who is willing to begin at the bottom of the ladder and work upwards; one who thinks it unmanly to smoke; one who thinks an education is worth striving for; one who is willing to obey his superiors; one who knows his home is better than the street; one who doesn't believe the marvelous tales told in the story papers, and will not read the vile won't spend every penny he earns or gets; one who thinks he should respect himself, and keep himself in decent appearance; one who won't attack an old man because he is feeble and defenseless; one who won't torture dumb animals; one who won't—

One who won't swear; one who won't listen to or repeat nasty stories; one who won't revile and jeer at drunken persons on the street; one who won't do a dirty act for another boy who is too cowardly to do his own meanness; one who loves to do right because it is right. Wanted—a boy, a whole-souled, earnest, honorable, square boy. Where can he be found? Does he live in your neighborhood? Is he a member of your family? Do you know him?

Our lives should be like the day, more beautiful in the evening; or, like the summer, aglow with promise; and like the autumn, rich with the golden sheaves, where good works and deeds have ripened on the field.

The importance of neat and tasteful home dressing cannot be overestimated. The matron who appears before the members of the family in shabby, soiled wrapper and makes

There are few enterprises requiring a number of executive heads, which are conducted by one family, as the case of Miller Brothers' Show. Associated with the Miller Brothers in their great enterprise is Edward Arlington, who was for many years one of the chief lieutenants of the late James A. Bailey, owner of Barnum & Bailey's show. It is upon him that falls the "show business" end of the enterprise.

"It is Zack Miller who arranges the programs," said P. W. Harrell, one of the advance men of the big wild west show. He knows the nature and value of every act in the show and every winter is busily engaged corraling all broncho busting and roping champions. Edward Arlington is the advertising genius of the show. The poster designing and the manner and extent of display in each town are decided by him. He has 75 picked men in the advance advertising department. He selects the cities and towns for exhibition, and makes the railroad arrangements. Jo C. Miller looks after the finances and is the prompt arbitrator of all local contingencies.

"No man in the show business has a wider acquaintance with reporter and their editors than he, or is more welcome in newspaper offices. He knows what to write and protects the reader as sensitively as the oldest editor could wish. He is popular with the leaders of the business and his associates would work off their heads and mortgage their shoulders for him.

"George L. Miller, the youngest brother remains at the ranch, which comprises 110,000 acres, and includes three different counties, and is located at Bliss, Okla. It is his duty to make weekly shipments of outlaw horses, better known as bucking bronchos, long-horned steers, and occasionally a fresh supply of broncho-busting cowboys."
